DIY THEATRE COMPANY

On Wednesday the DIY theatre company came into school. The DIY Company is a group of young adults with learning difficulties, that came to our school to put a show on for us. We all had an actor next to us to show us what to do. First, they wanted us to act and pretend to be trees and we had people pretending like they were wind waving their arms about. Then they came over with instruments and wanted us to play and feel them. They also had a torch that changed to different colours when you pressed a piece of silk over it. My favourite part was when we learned how to sign people's names I really enjoyed doing that more than the acting.

In this picture, the actor is pretending to sleep. And on the bottom one, everyone is trying to wake him up by shouting his name. I really enjoyed doing this and thought it was very funny.

The other picture is us trying to practice Some sign language.

DWAYNA JOHNSON POSTER

I created these posters by tracing a photocopy of Dwayne Johnson

I cut out images I found of him from his acting and wrestling careers.

I have tried hard to mix different skin colours.

My cutting skills have improved.

WHAT DO FAMOUS PEOPLE THINK OF DWAYNE JOHNSON WORK

"What's funny is we're clearly very different. He's a funny dude. He's always expanding, and he just gets better as he goes, like a flower that never stops blooming," Zac Efron told Entertainment. "It was fun to get in and really juke and jive with a guy who's twice my size and has zero fear. Like, you can never fight this guy in real life, but it was great, he was fantastic."

Alex Wolff Said Dwayne Johnson Is The Hardest Working Guy and he only had positive things to say. "He was really excited, that guys like the hardest working guy, It's easy to just look at him as this big, gorgeous, Adonis action star but he really cares about the acting. He's an inspiration and one of the most fun dudes I've ever met."

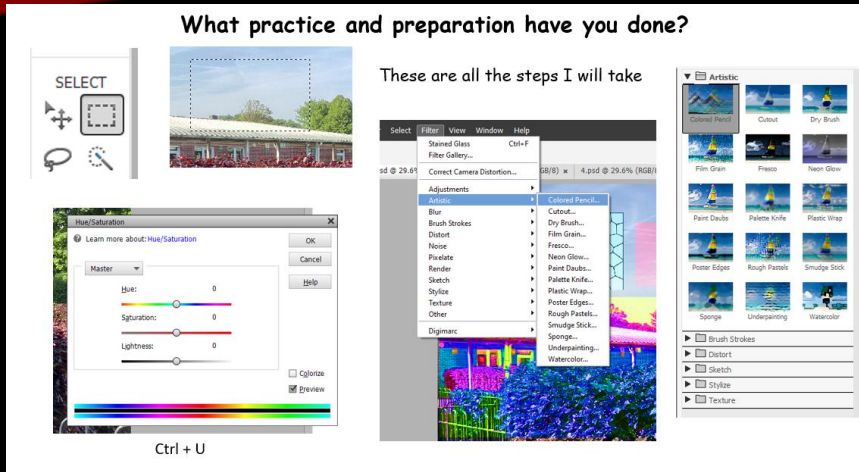

Kevin Hart and Dwayne Johnson are great friends. "The Rock has some of the most perfect teeth I've ever seen in my life," Kevin Hart said while on the Jimmy Kimmel show. "It really bugs me. All these years of wrestling and nobody messed up your teeth one time?!"

Part D

Developing leadership skills by passing on their arts skills to others

What practice and preparation have you done?

These are all the steps I will take

What practice and preparation have you done?

How are you going to make it fun and interesting?
What will you need?

I will put some music on in the background to make it more fun for Coby and even give him another task to make a red carpet if he finds it easy.
